

In my opinion, the Do Not Call Registry is the best thing that New Jersey has ever done for their residents. Not only are my dinners no longer interrupted, but I do not have to listen to 5 minutes of sales babble before I can even say "I'm not interested". If this service is discontinued, I would have to move out of NJ.